

Great The BUXTON DAY of DANCE MYSTERY

Here are the answers to the 15 clues.

So, the side without a clue is Powderkegs.

Adlington	Ansley	Beggars' Oak	Chapel-en-le-Frith	Chip Off the Old	Domesday	Five Rivers	Harthill
Leek	Manchester	Milltown	Moonlight	Powderkegs	Ripley Green Garters	T'Owd Man	Waters Green

	Clue	Dance Side
1	It's beginning to be clear what they share with Buxton Opera.	Beggars' Oak
2	Their bells make a pleasant sound, a sort of tonal "ding".	Adlington
3	In 1877 Buxton FC was founded. 18 = R, 7 = G, 7 = G Hmm, wonder what those letters are?	Ripley Green Garters
4	A Fifty Three might get you to keel over Hint: Roundabout	Leek (keel)
5	Where to park the Landau on the Market Place? It's a matter of taste. Hint: Market Place Coach House Fish and Chip Shop	Chip Off the Old
6	Above the 'old pumphouse', in letters of gold, (St Ann's Well) 3,4,6,9,8 plus Buxton's river so I'm told Hint: The Crescent	Ansle + y(Wye)
7	Just listen, won't you. Why, why, why, why, why? Wye is Buxton's River	Five Rivers
8	Confused? Scream, then you'll find this team	Manchester
9	Dashing between the little church and the trees (Frith is woodland)	Chapel-en-le-Frith
10	First three letters of this side add up to twice the Crescent arches 29 Arches x 2 = 58.	T'Owd Man T= 20, O = 15, W= 23
11	It's big enough not to need your support (or anyone else's) for a whole 24 hours Hint: Uni (largest unsupported dome)	Domes day
12	Would you find paradise in this pub? The first three letters will give you a clue to these dancers Hint: Spring Gardens Milton's Tap	Milltown
13	When it goes out next to the Taj Mahal you might see this. Hint: Higher Buxton The Sun Inn is next to Taj Mahal Indian Restaurant	Moonlight
14	The way to 'stage an entrance' has an environmental following. Hint: Opera House Stage Entrance on Water Street	Waters Green
15	Two are set up high on a crescent but you only need one, chased by a mount Hint: The Crescent Stags (Harts) on Crescent roof	Hart hill

For further information about Buxton Day of Dance visit www.chapelmorris.org and www.buxtonfringe.org.uk